

Individual Placement & Support (IPS) Criminal Justice Employment Service

Supporting individuals across the Black Country to find and retain employment

Who can access the service?

We support individuals who are open to our criminal justice mental health services in the Black Country.

How can IPS Criminal Justice Employment Service help you?

Our vocational specialists will provide you with one-to-one support to achieve your employment goals. We can help to:

- Identify the job you want
- Search and apply for jobs
- Support with CV & online applications
- Interview skills and confidence
- Support with offence disclosure
- Speak to employers on your behalf
- Support you in your place of work

Next Steps

Once we receive your details, we will arrange to contact you and complete an initial assessment. A vocational specialist will then work with you regularly via phone, online or face to face and support you to achieve your goals.
